

PORPACZY ALADAR SECONDARY TECHNICAL SCHOOL

Our school equipped with modern technology is waiting for those students who want a successful profession and a school-leaving certificate.

Taking advantage of the nearness of the border, the teachers of profession come from Austria to teach in the Hungarian-Austrian professional training.

Our students take part in the professional training in Frauenkirchen together with the Austrian students from their 11th grade once a week.

In the tourism training the professional subjects are also taught by specialists in tourism of the region, university professors and private businessmen taking advantage of the possibilities of the traditional peasant houses in Fertőszéplak.

Operating the traditional peasant houses we take a prominent role in general education, preserving and introducing regional values and World Heritage values.

In our institution teaching foreign languages has a prominent role.

After graduating from both professional trainings, our students usually possess one or two (German and English) language exams.

With the help of the programme 'Határtalanul' (Without borders) our students can travel to Transylvania. Besides they can take part in several projects and professional competitions successfully.

9th grade: Language preparatory year: Administrator of finance and accountancy – Hungarian-Austrian training

According to a cooperation curriculum the general subjects are taught in Hungarian, the professional subjects (finance information technology, accountancy, marketing, project management) and German and English languages are taught in German.

The professional practice is partly in Fertőd and partly in Austria so our students are entitled to have an Austrian student card as well.

At the end of the 13th grade, our students have to take a Hungarian school-leaving examination and an Austrian school-leaving examination.

The Austrian school-leaving certificate entitles them to do their higher education in Austria and can get Austrian scholarship and it is equivalent to an advanced –level language exam in German.

Language preparatory year: it gives an intensive opportunity to acquire German and English languages.

Technician of tourism training

Our institution undertakes the teaching of those specialists who are in possession of modern financial and marketing knowledge and high-level language knowledge in German and English taking advantage of those companies and businesses in our region which take part in the professional training and the local conditions of the traditional peasant houses in Fertőszéplak.

Due to the complex training, a specialist in tourism will be able to participate in the working up of business-, management-, financial-, and marketing plans which require manager's decision.

With the help of the professional excursions during the school-year, the professional practice in summer and the dual training, our students possessing the knowledge and experience of everyday life can enter the labour market.

Accommodation in the dormitory: bedrooms with 3 to 5 beds. Our dormitory provides the means for learning, culture, sport and entertainment.
